

It has been a blessing to arrive home after work to relax, not answer up to ten unwanted phone calls. I know how to contact my bank, phone company and credit card company and if I need service, will do so on my own time. I strongly oppose allowing CBA to challenge my right to a night of peace and quiet.